Though the competition itself is already full, if you are submitting beers into the 2012 National Homebrewer Competition

Portland Regional Judging Center, we are working out drop location(s) in the Puget Sound area along the I-5 corridor. We have a driver who will pick up entries and drive them down to the judging location in Portland.

If you would like to send down your entries (keeping them cold in the store and minimizing shipping time and chance of mis-handling) here is what you need to do:

1. Package your entries as if they were being shipped. They will still be jostling around in the vehicle AND WE ARE NOT LIABLE FOR ANY DAMAGE THAT MAY OCCUR DURING THE TRANSPORTATION PROCESS.

2. Attach an envelope to the outside of your packaging labeled "NHC DRIVER" with $1 per entry transported. This is to cover the driver's gas expenses.

3. Drop off your package at one of the locations listed below BY MARCH 28TH. We will not accept entries after that date.
