The Washington Homebrewers Association is proud to announce the winners of the 2009 Awards Program. They were announced and presented at the 2010 Cascade Exbeerience.

Washington Homebrewer of the Year

Awarded to the homebrewer who scores the most points in sanctioned WAHA competitions

Winner: Mike and Steve Brown (3.573 points)

First Runner-Up: Will Fredin (3.285 points)

Second Runner-Up: Tim Hayner (2.269 points)

Bert Grant Competition Results

Awarded the "best of show of the BOS winners"

Winner: Mike & Steve Brown
"Monkshine" Belgian Dark Strong

2nd Place: Will Fredin
"Linda's Luscious Lambic" - Raspberry Lambic

3rd Place: Peter Twigg

"Mild" - English Mild

Golden Mash Paddle

Recognizing homebrewers who help progress the Washington Homebrewing scene

Presented to Tim Hayner

Washington Club of the Year

Presented in Recognition of Club Brewing Skills and Contributions to the Homebrewing Community in Washington State

Presented to the Impaling Alers

Congratulations to all of the winners. Best of luck to all homebrewers and clubs in the 2010 awards!