The Washington Homebrewers Association is proud to announce the winners of the 2010 Awards Program. They were announced and presented at the 2011 Cascade Exbeerience.

Washington Homebrewer of the Year

Awarded to the homebrewer who scores the most points in sanctioned WAHA competitions

Winner: Tavish and Laura Sullivan (4.166 points)

First Runner-Up: Brian Thatcher (3.466 points)

Second Runner-Up: Colin Lenfesty (3.445 points)

Bert Grant Competition Results

Awarded the "best of show of the BOS winners"

Winner: Tim Hayner
"Weissbier" - Weissbier

2nd Place: Mark Tanner
"Two Years of Love" - English Barleywine

3rd Place: Colin Lenfesty
"Still Not" - Belgian Specialty Ale

Honorable Mention: Dan Stilwell
"Strawberry Dessert" - Melomel

Golden Mash Paddle

Recognizing homebrewers who help progress the Washington Homebrewing scene

Presented to Tom Schmidlin

Washington Club of the Year

Presented in Recognition of Club Brewing Skills and Contributions to the Homebrewing Community in Washington State

Presented to the Impaling Alers

Congratulations to all of the winners. Best of luck to all homebrewers and clubs in the 2010 awards!